Become a Member of the Abbeville County Historical Society

Joining the Abbeville County Historical Society is the best way to support the work we do. Membership in the Society represents appreciation and meaningful support for the preservation of history throughout Abbeville County.

Benefits include:

- Invitations to program presentations, special events and annual Christmas events.
- Active participation in the ongoing preservation/renovation of the McGowan-Barksale-Bundy House at 305 North Main which is used as our headquarters and the Jane Greene-Tumminia Area Historic Southern Decorative Arts Center.
- Newsletters
- The opportunity to help preserve and share our rich historic county and state heritage and thus help shape the future of Abbeville County and promote economically important tourism.
